Colin and Justin will be at the National Home Show.

Spring is finally on its way! I'm driving home in daylight now, which is a true harbinger of the season that — and construction! — and I finally shed my extra-bulky winter coat for a regular winter coat.

With the warmer weather at hand, it means spring clean is high up on everyone's list — as well as home renovations — making the National Home Show, along with famous Canada Blooms, a must for the weekend. The National Home Show is considered North America's largest home and garden event, runs for 10 days every March and houses everything needed to refresh a space — inside and out, and at every price point. All under one roof, the show is home to more than 750 exhibitors showcasing the latest trends in decor and design, as well as celebrity and local experts and much more. It's also the place to enjoy Canada Blooms, a not-for-profit organization that gives back to the community throughout the year by funding community garden projects around Ontario. Canada Blooms is also dedicated to providing the community with horticulture expertise, education and resources on an ongoing basis. Now in its 17th year, Canada

Blooms has been named One of Ontario's Top 100 Events by Festivals and Events Ontario and One of North America's Top 100 Events by the American Bus Association.

Both shows are located in the Direct Energy Centre at Exhibition Place in
