Rick Campanelli is one of Canada's most recognizable TV personalities. After spending nearly a decade with MuchMusic as one of their most popular hosts, he made the leap from the "nation's music station" to ET Canada. Rick spent 12 years interviewing the biggest stars and covering many of the world's most glamorous events from the Golden Globes to the Oscars.

Rick also co-hosted Z103.5's morning show, where he dug into local and global headlines, as well as exciting entertainment news, and has since moved on to co-host on 98.1 CHFI with his colleague Brooksy. Whether creating custom digital content or hosting media events, Rick brings his natural charm and wit to everything he does.

After winning the 1994 MuchMusic Temp contest, Rick's boyish charm and easy-going, up-front style quickly made him a fan-favourite host and VJ across Canada.

Rick co-hosted ET Canada for 12 years, interviewing biggest stars and covering some of the world's most glamorous events, from the Golden Globes to the Oscars.

Rick hosted Food Network Canada's The Incredible Food Race, a family-oriented series where he presided over exciting cook-off challenges.

Rick was previously co-host of Z103.5's morning show, where he dug into the biggest local and global news headlines, as well as the latest entertainment news. He has since moved on to co-host 98.1 CHFI.
