BRITTNEE BLAIR

Television Personality | Model

Brittnee Blair is bringing her brand of authenticity, warmth, and confidence advocacy to audiences across Canada as Global's Entertainment Reporter. A former on-air reporter for ET Canada, she has interviewed stars such as Robert De Niro, Chris Hemsworth, Gabrielle Union, Sam Smith, Michelle Yeoh, Dolly Parton, Garth Brooks, and Scarlett Johansson. Known for serving up a heaping cup of self-love, Brittnee is an accomplished television and event host.

Brittnee began her modelling career at the early age of seven and has been featured in campaigns for countless well-known international brands including Old Navy, Macy's, Marshalls, Joe Fresh, Zales, Target, Roots, Penningtons, Svedka Vodka, John Frieda, Bobbi Brown, and many more. Her work with Knix has also been featured in New York's Times Square.

In 2015, Brittnee was a houseguest on Global's Big Brother Canada, earning the moniker "Queen B" and propelling her into increased notoriety on both television and digital platforms. Brittnee expanded her skillset in 2021, landing a hosting gig on W Network's Movie Date. The following year, Brittnee became an on-air reporter for ET Canada, where she brought her trademark style, charisma, and unique viewpoints to the entertainment news program, and in 2025, Brittnee signed on as a Breakfast Television Contributor, where she hosted fashion and beauty segments, chatted with experts, and even recapped reality show drama as part of The Bachelor Breakdown. In her most recent role as the Entertainment Reporter for Global — appearing on various shows including The Morning Show, TMS2, and Global News — Brittnee covers the latest stories, conducts in-depth celebrity interviews, and provides on-site coverage of exciting events.

With a deep appreciation for food, travel, and cultural exploration, Brittnee remains focused on the values that have carried her throughout her life; health, happiness, and an understanding of the impact that we all can have on the world. She resides in Toronto with her husband and young daughter.
